NCCA POLICY

Dues are $6.00 per year for adults and $4.00 per year for juniors under 18. Membership is open to all, but only NC residents can vote and hold office. Each member is entitled to play in NCCA-sponsored events and will receive "The Carolina Gambit," published six times a year. Games, articles, tournament reports, and other materials for "The Gambit" are welcome and necessary. All tournament reports and address corrections should be sent to the new Assistant Editor and all other materials to the new Editor. All submissions should be in neat handwriting. The next "Gambit" will be published around November 15, 1982. Free tournament supplies are available for tournaments which require NCCA membership; write Robert Spurrier for more information.

KOGAN AND KOLVICK WIN 9TH LPO

By Neal Harris

194 players from 21 different states participated in the 9th annual LPO featuring a record $9000 prize fund. Every LPO has some special incident which etches itself a place in the LPO traditional legacy. This year was no exception as a humid air conditioning system drenched several boards and players. Steve Herman, Gregory Markzon, Steven Hunt, and Bernard Parham were awarded Bill Wall's "Kings Gambit Miniatures" as an "underwater" prize for being particularly affected by the raining ceiling.

In the Open Section, Boris Kogan (2558) from Atlanta, GA and Randy Kolvick (2297), newly-located in Charlotte, posted 5-0 scores to tie for 1st/2nd overall. Each took home $800. Taking clear third and $400 in the 84-player section was Larry Gilden (2363) from Maryland. Niels Bostrom (KY) and Steven Hunt (GA) tied for 1st/2nd Candidate Master, each taking home $350. Top 1st/2nd Cat. I was won by Glenn Umstead (VA) and Ernest Haile (NJ), each winning $350.

The 69-player Amateur section was also hotly contested resulting in many ties. 1st-4th overall was won by John Morris (VA), W. W. Foster (NC), James Hyatt (SC), and James Troy (NC), each winning $387.50. Top 1500-1599 and $300 was won by Anson Cooke (NC). Top 1400-1499 and $300 was won by William Covington (NC).

The 41-player Novice section was won by an unrated, Mickey Bowman (TN) who took home $300 for his 5-0 score. Another unrated, Louie Wilson, took home $300 for 2nd place overall. Top Cat. V/VI and $350 was won by Jerry Willis (NC). Top unrated and $250 was won by Tom Cooper (TN). A complete list of prize winners follows later.

The tournament directors for the 9th Annual LPO were Neal Harris, Robert Singletary, and Thad Rogers; and, of course, the tournament would have been impossible without the hard work and support of Al Lipkin. Also, the tournament is currently without a sponsor. Anyone wishing to help sponsor and thus continue the tradition of one of the class tournaments in the south should write or call Alan Lipkin.

The complete prize list is as follows:

31ST NC CHAMPIONSHIP REPORT

Samsa, Dana, and Alden Tie for First

By Robert Singletary

One hundred players from seven states converged on the Raleigh Marriott Hotel September 4-6 to participate in the 31st North Carolina Open Championship/David Stern Memorial. Yet, when the dust had finally cleared, Greg Samsa (2288) of Chapel Hill had successfully defended his title of North Carolina champion with a 5-1 score, winning $275 and the David Stern Memorial trophy.

Tied with Greg with a score of 5-1 were Maurice Dana (2202) of Chapel Hill and Charles Alden (2063) of Durham. Both players had drawn with Samsa in earlier rounds, but due to Samsa's win over Rusty Potter (2318), they fell slightly short on tiebreaks. Each received $175 for their fine efforts.

Ties continued to be the rule for the category prizes in the Open section. In the 2000-2099 section, Terry Newman (2091) of Rocky Mount and Leland Fuerstman (2036) of Charlotte tied with 4-2 scores, each winning $37.50. In the 1900-1999 section, Ron Simpson (1934) of Raleigh and John McCarthy (1935) of California tied with 3.5-2.5 scores, each also winning $37.50. Finally, in the 1800-1899 section, Mark Seawell (1854) of Raleigh was a clear winner with a 3.5-2.5 score, winning $75.

In the Amateur section, Rajesh Maingi (1724) of Raleigh was a clear winner with a 5.5-.5 mark, taking home $275 and the amateur section trophy. Close behind with 5-1 scores were Jackie Ryan (1724) of Durham and Will Foster (1650) of Raleigh, each winning $87.50. As Will took a split of top 1600 money, third place was left open, and Pickard Wilson (1786) of Raleigh, David Antczak (1714) of Raleigh, and William Timlic (1659) of Greenville each won $17.

In the amateur section category prizes had clear winners. Anwar Ahmadi (1578) of Charlotte took first in the 1500-1599 section with a 4.5-1.5 score, winning $75; David McKay (1494) of Raleigh took first in the 1400-1499 section with a 3.5-2.5 mark, taking home $75; Kin Martin (1360) of Raleigh took first with an outstanding performance of 4.5-1.5 in the 1300-1399 section, taking home $50; and Mike Parks and Michael Przybysz tied for first in the unrated section with 3.5-2.5 scores, taking home $25.

The tournament was sponsored by the North Carolina Chess Association in conjunction with the Raleigh Chess Club. Robert Singletary was chief tournament director, and Kenneth Johnson and Louis Cobb were the assistant tournament directors.

Minutes of NCCA Business Meeting

RALEIGH--September 4--NCCA President Bob Spurrier welcomed members to the business meeting portion of the North Carolina Championship/David Stern Memorial. He presented an update on non-profit status for the NCCA.

Two deletions from the constitution, the Carolinas Open as a required event and the clearinghouse as a duty of the Vice-President, passed unanimously. Branson Sheets has been appointed the new clearinghouse director.

Patsy Spurrier presented the secretary-treasurer's report and Robert Singletary followed with the Gambit report in which he thanked games editor Charles Alden for his work and requested more material from NCCA members.

Robert Singletary presented the Grand Prix proposal to be added to the constitution. After discussion it was decided that the prize to the Grand Prix champion and junior champion would be $50 in chess equipment or cash and a free entry into the next championship tournament. This entire proposal was approved by the membership.

Bob Spurrier presented letters of appreciation to directors, organizers, and officers and Gambit editors as a token of thanks for their labors for North Carolina chess.

Alan Lipkin presented a report on the LPO which has been the largest tournament in North Carolina for nine years. Dr. Lipkin plans to solicit prize fund money from businesses and individuals to keep entry fees low, and anyone who could be of help in this area should contact him.

At the close of the business meeting, the bi-annual election of officers was held. Robert Singletary was elected President, Alan Lipkin was re-elected Vice-President, and Patsy Spurrier was re-elected Secretary/Treasurer.

IN THE LIMELIGHT: JIM MOTTONEN

By Neal Harris

During discussions concerning the merits of their favorite openings, chess players and centipedes often theorize who the better players in the state are. About midway through such a debate someone may mention Jim Mottonen. Usually his name is immediately followed by "Jim who?"

Jim Mottonen's list of successes include the 1974 Flint Chess Club Champion (age 15), 2nd Class B 1976 Canadian Open (defeating Fedorowicz), 1978 Michigan Junior Champion; and after moving to North Carolina, Jim has tied for first at the Bill Adickes' Open, tied for first at the 1981 North Carolina Championship, took clear first at the South Fork Open as well as winning numerous smaller events.

Following are two of his games (annotations are by Jim Mottonen):

D. Liu Mottonen

(1981 NC Invitational)

1. e4 c5 2. Nf3 Nc6 3. d4 cd 4. N x d4 Nf6 5. Nc3 e5

I have only lost once with the Lasker-Peliken (to Klaus Pohl).

6. Nb5 d6 7. Bg5 a6 8. Na3 b5 9. B x f6 g x f6 10. Nd5 f5 11. B x b5!? a x b5 12. N x b5 Qa5+!?

Liu played the same bishop sac in the 1980 Invitational.

In that game, I played 12. ... Qg5 and went on to win.

13. c3 Qa4 14. Ndc7+ Kd8 15. Qd5?! Rb8! 16. Q x c6 Bd7 17. Ne6+ fe 18. Qc7+ Kd7 19. Q x d6+ Kf6 20. Q x b8 Q x e4+ 21. Kf1 Bc6!

Up to now the game has followed Berg-Povah. Povah played 21. ... Qd5+ followed by Q x b5 with a good game. However, 21. ... Bc6! wins immediately.

22. Qd8+ Kg6 23. Nd4 Q x g2+ 24. Kc2 Qe4+ 25. Kd1 Q x h1+ 26. Kc2 Ba4 27. Resigns

Fuerstman

Mottonen

(1982 South Fork Open)

1. e4 c5 2. Nc3 Nc6 3. f4 e6 4. Bc4?! a6 5. a4 Nb4!

Black is not afraid to move the same piece twice in the opening; this knight continues the fight for d5 and stops white from playing Qf3.

6. d3 d5 7. Bb3 Nf6 8. e5 Ng8!?

Black spends a tempo to close the position, turning it into a kind of French. Now white could try 9. a5 with the idea Na4 and c3. Fuerstman is content to develop his pieces.

9. Nf3 h5 10. O-O Nh6 11. Bd2 Nf5 12. a5 Bd7 13. Qe2 h4!

White has completed his development but his pieces are not well-coordinated. Black's last move threatens to win material with c4.

14. Nd1 c4 15. dc Bc5+ 16. Ne3?

16. Nf2 is better.

16. ...dc 17. Ba4 Nd5 18.
 Q x c4 Rc8 19. B x d7+ Q x d7
 Black's pieces have sprung to life, and now White cannot avoid fatal loss of material.
 20. Qb3 Nd x e3 21. Bb4
 Qc6 22. Rf2 Ng4 23. B x c5

Q x c5 24. Qa4+ Ke7 25. Rd1
 Rhd1?
 25. ...Q x f2+ 26. Kh1
 Ng3+! mates.
 26. R x d8 Q x f2+ 27.
 Resigns
 Smother mate would follow in two moves.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

By Bob Spurrier

This is my final column since Robert Singletary will be taking over as President effective November 1st. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Robert as well as offer him my condolences.

Seriously, I am sure Robert will bring the same energy and competence with which he handled the Gambit to his new post.

I would like to thank Robert, Patsy, Al, and all the organizers and directors who make the organization work and for the support they have shown over the course of the year.

One unfinished item of business for which I would like to account is non-profit status. As I told you when I first took over as President, this item has been turned over to an attorney. In response to my recent inquiries, the attorney, Perry Keziah of High Point, informs me that our charter has been granted. We await only processing by the IRS to attain our non-profit status. I hope that this is completed soon and regret that it will not be during my term of office.

In closing, I would like to thank the entire membership for your support. I am sure our organization will continue to grow and prosper.

FROM THE EYES OF A FISH

By Robert Singletary

It is with great regret but much relief that I announce my resignation as Editor of the Carolina Gambit. I have enjoyed my 2½ year tenure as Editor, but due to increasing school work and my election as President, I feel this move was necessary.

However, I am not the least bit worried about the Gambit as Charles Alden has agreed to take over effective immediately. A little background info I feel is in order. Charlie has been Assistant Editor for approximately eighteen months and has helped me in many capacities, mainly compiling and editing the games. He is an editor by profession in Durham, and I am sure he will lend his professionalism that he had as Assistant Editor to his job as Editor.

As of this point, I am asking that all materials except tournament reports and address corrections be sent to Charlie so that the transition can be smooth between us. I will not abandon the Gambit totally as I will continue to compile the rating list, Grand Prix, and mailing list.

As this is my swan song as Editor, there are many people I would like to thank: Bob and Patsy Spurrier, Al Lipkin, Neal Harris, Leland Fuerstman, Ken Johnson, Louis Cobb, Branson Sheets, Donald Miller, Terry Mallow, Larry Matthews, Joe Stegall, Ray Hight, Lee Hyder, Harry Sabine, and Tom Galloway (no, you are not forgotten!). Without these people, the Gambit would be impossible. I would also like to thank everybody else's support, especially some special people in Raleigh who always helped me when I was down. Again, many thanks.

I have nothing special to say as President because all the ideas I had got passed as Editor (convenient, isn't it?). However, to keep the organization running smoothly, I will need your ideas, support, and feed-back. In addition, I would hope you would lend your support to Charlie as well, because the Gambit is a thankless and difficult job.

Again, many thanks for your support while I was Editor, and I look forward to serving you in the future.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

For some time now I have been concerned that chess tournaments in our state have not been cleared through a proper USCF clearinghouse. Many tournaments have conflicted in past years causing both tournaments involved to suffer. This does nothing to promote chess in North Carolina, but inhibits our growth. As a tournament director, I know the difficulties in organizing tournaments, and the clearinghouse should not be a problem. The zip code area 270-289, formerly in Dr. Al Lipkin's care, has been granted to my responsibility.

Please try to clear all your future tournaments with me. Feel free to ask for a list of all dates already cleared when you plan a tournament. I would like to start a policy of "first come, first served," so clear those dates! I look forward to serving you--the tournament directors of North Carolina.

Branson Sheets
PO Box 147
Willow Springs, NC 27592

UPCOMING TOURNAMENTS

All North Carolina tournaments requiring NCCA membership and tournaments in the reciprocal states (SC, TN, GA, AL) receive a free tournament announcement in the Gambit. All organizers are asked to clear prospective tournament dates with Branson Sheets, the clearinghouse manager, to avoid conflicts at the address above.

GAMES

Compiled and Edited by Charles Alden

A few years ago I had occasion to watch an interesting game in the last round of the L.P.O. Big Joe Bradford, who was to win the U.S. Open the following month, sat down confidently at second board, expecting a quick win as White against his young opponent, rated around 1700. Five hours and sixty moves later, a shaken Joe arose wearily and kept muttering. "I can't believe it. 60 moves. That fellow is tough."

"That fellow" was Maurice Dana, who has steadily risen in the ranks of North Carolina players and is now flirting with a master's rating. Greg Samsa, an astute observer of playing styles, once called Maurice "the best unbooked player in the state," referring to his acute tactical awareness but, at the time, lack of theoretical preparation. Unfortunately for the rest of us, Maurice is becoming versed in the openings as well, and he poses dangerous threats in all phases of the game. His play is marked by ingenious combinative attacks and resourceful counterattacks.

Maurice is currently finishing his last year of medical school at UNC, and he was an accomplished pianist and golfer before deciding to devote his recreational time more exclusively to chess. Maurice is a devout Christian, and he treats chess as a means of using his God-given talents to produce artistic creations, not just as a means of ego-fulfillment. In the past a few of his losses have been printed in the Gambit; these are notable for the high level of creativity required of his opponents to achieve such a result. With characteristic modesty he has not submitted any of his more numerous wins for publication; however, this writer has succeeded in prying loose the following gems, which may be considered representative of his style.

Black has drifted into quite an uncomfortable position. His basic problem is that he has no central points around which to base any action. As a matter of taste, I might prefer 7. ... P-QB4 with the hope of a little more piece activity; now the White pawns dominate the center. Since the knight has no future on N3, 13. ...N-B1 might be better; Black would still be cramped, but at least solid.

The idea of this move is to reduce White's pressure on d6 by preventing Nd2-c4. The extra white-squared bishop will be relatively ineffectual as long as Black can keep White's pawns on e4 and d5. This is easier said than done, however.
